

REAPPEARANCE OF GERMAN
MADE GOODS INDICATES
CITY HAS "RATIFIED" PACT

BY MEMORY M'CORD.

While austere senators haggle over the peace treaty the American public, particularly the citizens of Memphis, have evidently decided to "call off the war" and return to peace and normal conditions. This attitude is ably illustrated by the reappearance of German-made goods which have been in the hands of the city's dealers for some time. The goods, which were seized by the government at the time of the seizure of the city, are now being sold by the dealers at a price which is much lower than the price at which they were seized. This is a clear indication that the city has "ratified" the pact.

There is a special division of the income tax bureau which does nothing but think up new lines of persons who don't file the correct kind of return. Of course, allowance is made for error and for reasonable excuse in case of delayed returns. People who are sick or absent from the country, and who make a sworn statement to that effect which is convincing to the collector of internal revenue in their respective districts, can be exempted from penalty. But the government has a staff of experts who can sometimes tell at a glance whether a return is suspicious and the return sheet is turned over to special investigators who make a careful examination of the case in question.

Will Adjust Tax.
The government's aim is to get correct tax returns. If you have paid more than you should, the government will call your attention to it just as quickly as if you have paid too little. The secretary of the treasury and the commissioner of internal revenue are authorized to accept compromise settlements. Where there is plainly no intention to defraud the government and where the mistake is simply one of computation, compromises are daily accepted.

Hundreds of millions of dollars are collected that way. And the importance of it is so long as the government doesn't get all the money it has estimated would be given to it by taxpayers, just so long must taxes be kept at high levels in order to pay national debts. Anyone who evades his taxes, therefore, imposes a burden on his neighbor. It prolongs both the period of taxation as well as the era of high cost of living.

Fully 15,000 people are employed by the United States government to check up on income tax returns. Three thousand are in Washington and 2,000 in the field. Of the 12,000 others, the majority are engaged throughout the year in the task of getting information about taxpayers. It is an intensive study of each taxpayer's income.

Income tax inspectors have access to state and county records where business transactions or transfers of all kinds are filed. They have available, if they wish, the names of all companies. They can tell by investigation, and they are doing it all the time, just how much money a man has made in the stock market and whether he gave the government the proper share.

The process is not merely to investigate each man. That would take too long. But each brokerage firm, for instance, must show how much has been paid to individuals in excess of $100. It must show how much individuals have paid to the brokerage firm. The government tabulates simply the information about John Smith which comes from business firms or individuals in all parts of the country.

Information about a taxpayer might come one day from Seattle and the next from Boston. Eventually it is all put together in the file of John Smith, with the exact address of the said John Smith, and if necessary the floor or flat of the building in which he lives, in the event that there are two persons of the same name in the dwelling.

Honesty Best Policy.
Of course, deputy collectors are possessed of "local knowledge" which enables them to find out things. A man who had enough money to buy a house and lot and automobile and didn't file an income tax return would be a deputy collector looking up the reason why. The staff of the income tax bureau throughout the United States is always looking for delinquents. It means more money due Uncle Sam that hasn't been paid and therefore lighter tax burdens for everybody else in the coming years. Much information comes from citizens who happen to learn of fraudulent evasions. Every case charges must be proved and a taxpayer has the right to appeal to the courts, but first he must pay his taxes and if the court decides in his favor the government will refund. Anyway you look at it, the government gets its taxes if it takes years to find it out. A few days ago the executor and heirs of a certain estate filed an amended return. They had discovered an error in back returns. It was a partnership case.

"We can't jail a dead man," said one of the government officials, "but if that partner is still alive and he has filed the same kind of a tax return, he had better file another return and pay up taxes due."

So honesty is the best policy and negligence or indifference on the subject of income tax returns is apt to prove costly.

Friday's article will tell how the government discovers "excessive" salaries in business concerns and how prosecutions are conducted. (Copyright, 1930, by David Lawrence.)

GIVE WEATH FOR BIER OF SENATOR BANKHEAD
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 4.—A delegation of prominent Chattanooga men met today at the city hall Wednesday afternoon at the station and presented a wreath for the bier of the late Senator Bankhead, whose work in behalf of Tennessee river improvements has been of immeasurable benefit to this territory.

The wreath was presented by Mayor Alexander W. Chambers and response made by Senator Underwood in the name of the state of Alabama.

ARMY MAJOR CHOSEN MAYOR OF SEATTLE
SEATTLE, Wash., March 4.—Hugh M. Caldwell, former army major, was elected mayor of Seattle yesterday by a majority of 16,781 votes over James Duncan, secretary of the Seattle Central Labor council, his opponent, according to complete unofficial returns. The majority was the largest ever given a candidate for mayor here.

The campaign was a bitter one, involving frequent charges of bribery against Duncan, who was a leader in the general strike here a year ago. The principal issue was "Americanism."

Caldwell's vote was 22,440, according to the unofficial returns, and Duncan's 24,064.

BEET SUGAR PROFITS TO BE SCRUTINIZED
WASHINGTON, March 4.—Boards of some of the larger beet sugar manufacturers in Colorado will be audited by the department of justice to decide whether they have been making unreasonable profits. District Attorney Tedrow, of Colorado, told Assistant Attorney General F. L. Figg today that he was charged by some of the manufacturers seemed unduly high and he was promised that auditors would be sent to Colorado as soon as possible.

Mr. Figg announced that the government had no jurisdiction in the dispute between the sugar manufacturers and the beet growers who have been unable to reach an agreement as to the price to be charged for the raw beets.

PEPPER MAKES TALK.
John R. Pepper, Sunday school and church worker, addressed the student body of the University of Tennessee Medical college Wednesday at its first chapel hour. His subject was "Conditions in Belgium." He said he had seen them. Mr. Pepper investigated conditions last summer for the Methodist centenary.

Local buyers have gone West where they were able to purchase German-made goods which had lain in store-houses in Holland throughout the war and which began arriving in the United States early last fall. Now one can purchase a German rolling pin, almost any Memphis department store. Egg beaters and coffee strainers of the same nationality are not scarce and the roll of a good linen which also bore a German stamp, although a silver-edged seal announced that it was "Made in Ireland."

At a local linen counter something similar happened. The clerk, who was a German, said she only designed them before the war she only designed them and allowed Germany to do the rest. These names were doubtless completed afterward. I picked up these particular samples in a New York commission house.

U. S. WILL FIGHT
K. BOLL CPM

Discovery in Louisiana Brings Plan for Precipitate Preventive Action.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Discovery of the pink boll worm of cotton, previously supposed to exist in this country only in Texas, in at least two Louisiana parishes has caused the department of agriculture to announce plans to provide immediately additional funds with which to fight the pest. Representatives of the cotton states and of the department will meet in New Orleans March 5 to discuss methods of eradicating the worm.

The largest area of infestation in Louisiana, according to the reports of the department of agriculture, is "Cameron parish," where it is believed it has existed for two years. Calcasieu parish has been infested more recently and only meager information has been received by the department.

Cotton seed from Cameron parish, ranging in total from one to 25 cars, has been widely distributed and presumably planted, the department announced in the fields about Alexandria, Brumfield, Shreveport, Bunkie and Monroe, La., and San Antonio, Port Worth, Houston, San Marcos and New Braunfels, Tex.

Fear was expressed at the department that unless prompt and energetic measures are adopted immediately the boll worm would get out of hand and much of the work of extermination in Texas would be lost.

The department's reports indicate the extension of the infested area around Trinity Bay, Texas. The reinfestation of that area, the department's experts asserted, was due to the modification of the policy agreed upon by the department and the state authorities to permit no cotton to be grown in infested areas for two or three years. Specialists of the department insist the remedy must be found in adherence to the policy of establishing noncotton zones.

JACKSON MAYOR GOING TO RAILROAD MEETING
JACKSON, Tenn., March 4. (Sp.)—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Gulf, Mobile & Northern railroad, to be held in Mobile on Monday, will be attended by a number of Jacksonians, including L. B. Tigert, president of the road, and Mayor J. D. Johnson, who represents the city's interests of 1,000 shares in the road. Directors to serve for the ensuing year will be selected at this meeting and other business in connection with the operation of the road under private control will be transacted.

Mayor Johnson was officially notified of the meeting today by Secretary F. R. Brumfield, the mayor probably will attend the meeting. By virtue of his official position, Mayor Johnson represents the city's ownership of 1,000 shares of stock taken in the road as an inducement for it to come to Jackson.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup
Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it really has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes. Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ASPIRIN FOR HEADACHE
Name "Bayer" is on Genuine Aspirin—say Bayer

Insist on "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" in a "Bayer package," containing proper directions for Headache, Colds, Pain, Neuralgia, Lumbago, and Rheumatism.

Each will be asked his railroad car requirements necessary to deliver material to complete work under contract. The reports will be compiled and submitted to traffic departments of railroads with request for relief from the present car shortage. If that relief does not succeed an appeal will be made to the interstate commerce commission.

Highway officials and county judges throughout Memphis territory also have been asked to attend the meeting. Mr. King mailed letters to 15 quarry owners in Mississippi, Alabama and Arkansas, 15 gravel and stone companies in Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi and 25 road contractors in the three states, Alabama and Missouri.

What's the Use of Argument Over Questions That Are Already Settled?

Twenty years ago, when the late Senator Bankhead was only an ordinary congressman from Alabama, the writer then a reporter on a small daily newspaper in Knoxville, Tenn., strolled into a hotel about midnight and noticed on the register the name of John H. Bankhead, of Jasper, Ala.

"Reckon so," replied the clerk. "Suppose he's gone to bed by this time," said the reporter. "I'll call him up and see."

The reporter did so and was invited up to Mr. Bankhead's room. There he found the congressman sitting on the edge of his bed wrapped in a blanket. But instead of calling that reporter down, he gave him an interview on important matters then pending in congress and ended by thanking him for calling upon him. And the reporter thanked him in turn for enabling him to get a beat on the other local newspaper. Consequently that reporter has always had a soft spot in his heart for the late senator.
